

COVENANT HOUSE
Sleep Out
To Support Homeless Youth

For just one night...

On March 24th young leaders in eight cities across the U.S. will sleep outside in solidarity with homeless youth to show them that they are not alone. Will you join them?

Young Professional Edition

Impact

Nearly 2 million kids in America will face homelessness this year. Perhaps their greatest poverty, though, is that they are ignored and forgotten.

Over 1,000 homeless and trafficked youth found hope at Covenant House Georgia last year.

Join us in the movement to help kids off the street and rebuild their lives.

FAQs

When is the event? The Sleep Out is an overnight event taking place from 6:00 pm on Friday, March 24th to 6:30 am on Saturday, March 25th. It will be held on the Covenant House Georgia (CHGA) campus in West Midtown.

Will I be safe? CHGA is a gated campus and there will be ample staff and security to supervise the evening.

What should I bring? CHGA will provide sleepers with hygiene kits similar to what our Outreach Team hand out to youth on the streets. We will also provide cardboard boxes and sleeping bags – feel free to bring your own and other items you may find necessary such as a pillow, medications and extra layers to keep warm.

How much do I need to raise? We hope you will raise awareness by sending at least 5 communications to your contacts, and suggest that you try to raise $1,500 in support of homeless youth. We provide a personal webpage and all the tools and resources you need to reach your goal.

One night can make a difference.
