

Sleep Outside So Homeless Youth Don't Have To

On May 11, women will Sleep Out in Atlanta to send the clear message to homeless youth that they are not alone.

Nearly 2 million kids will face homelessness this year.

You can help. Join the Sleep Out Movement. Raise critical funds and awareness to make sure these kids have a safe place to sleep at Covenant House every night. Then, spend an evening getting to know some of the kids whose lives will be better because of your work – and spend the rest of the night sleeping on the street in their place.

Sleep Out: Women Unite

The money you raise when you Sleep Out is put to work immediately.

Covenant House provides food, shelter, immediate crisis care, and essential services like education and job training to homeless youth in 30 cities across the U.S., Canada and Latin America. When you Sleep Out, you help us keep the lights on and doors open for the thousands of kids who seek help each year.

40% of homeless people in the United States are under 18.

57% of homeless kids spend at least one day of every month without food.

50% of teenagers who age out of the foster care and juvenile justice systems are homeless within 6 months.

46% of homeless kids left home because of physical abuse.

Sleep Out FAQ's

What's expected of participants?

To approach the event with an open mind and a willingness to work hard for something outside your comfort zone. Fundraising is required before the event, with a goal of raising $1,500 (don't worry, our team provides coaching every step of the way!)

Can I Sleep Out with my friends or co-workers?

Yes! You can create a team when you sign up. All attendees must be eligible and registered for the event.

Will I be safe?

Covenant House Georgia is a gated campus and we have 24/7 on-premises security to ensure you are fully protected.
